PCOM ALUMNI MEMORIES & FUTURE HOPES . . .

" My favorite memory of PCOM is the privilege I have had of teaching future Osteopathic physicians."

E. Fliegelman, D.O.

" On the first day of my first rotation, a patient gravid 10 came into 20th Street in labor. I called the resident and said there is a patient delivering and he told me to put her in a wheel chair and bring her over. The patient said, ' it's coming now!' so I wheeled her into what was then the Urology clinic and put her on an examining table. Before I knew it, I grabbed the kid just before it hit the ground."

L. Finkelstein, D.O.

"My favorite recollection of my years at PCOM is the aroma from Dr. Cathie's dissection lab under the roof at 48th Street."

D. Heilig, D.O.

" My hope for the future of PCOM is the growth of the college in all areas for PCOM becoming #1 in the nation."

R. Meals, D.O.

"I remember working in the basement of the hospital at 20th& Susquehanna and sending student doctors out in pairs to make house calls."

S. Fedec, D.O.

" Not only were we drafted into the armed forces as privates, but we were unable to sign papers for workmen's compensation,treat students of the Philadelphia School System, or commit patients to mental institutions. ... little by little we gained recognition ... as you know, there are no hospitals or colleges in the Philadelphia area without DOs on their staffs and faculties."

C. Harris, D.O., M.Sc., F.A.C.N.

To the Class of 1995- The planning of this book began our first year when a number of you voiced concern over not being represented in a book that you had financed. It was then that I began thinking about how our four years could adequately be represented. Being an admirer of good photography, I thumbed through "A Day in the Life of America". It was from that book that this idea originated- Four Years in the Lives of Medical Students. Along with a pictorial history, which was only possible through the photographic contributions of many class members, I felt that world and class events needed to be documented. Hence, the idea of a timeline. Although the ideas behind this book developed over the course of our medical training, none of this would have been possible without a few dedicated classmates: Linda Neale, Ken Scott, Tom Barone, Karyn Lewis, Tony Freda, Rob Wade and Cecelia Johnson who were always willing to help. Jay Glickman spent numerous hours developing the timeline, going through four years of "Time" magazine - tediously and tenaciously. Heidi Yutzler and Stacey Rifkin mastered the new computer system, not only completing their sections early, but also selflessly devoting their time to the completion of the rest of the book. Joanne Calabrese, having never edited a book before, managed the entire operation. She was the correspondant, financial supervisor and final editor. This book would not be out if not for her dedication. Hope you all enjoy this creation. -Jen Stebbing, Layout & Design Editor

Dear Colleagues:

Congratulations upon receiving your Doctor of Osteopathy degree as part of Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine's 104th class. You are beginning your career at a very exciting time, with the practice of medicine changing almost on a daily basis.

I believe your training, supported by its osteopathic philosophy, will help you to meet the challenges and to contribute to the demands.

Whatever the future holds, Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine remains supportive and willing to assist you in achieving your goals.

On behalf of the Board of Trustees, faculty, staff, and all PCOM alumni/ae, I congratulate you on your achievements and wish you great success and happiness in your new career.

Fraternally,

Leonard H. Finkelstein, D.O., M.Sc., F.A.C.O.S.
President

Dear Colleagues:

Congratulations to your class, the Class of 1995, as you receive your D.O. degree. As I am sure you will agree, you have completed a demanding and rigorous four years of osteopathic medical education.

To paraphrase a favorite medical author, you are entering a noble profession. The study of osteopathic medicine is a humanitarian pursuit, as well as a scholarly discipline, and a unique lifetime experience. You are scientifically well educated but also capable of approaching problems from a variety of perspectives, drawing upon methods of analysis of the humanist, the social scientist and the behavioral scientist. Our hope is that your class will follow in the altruistic tradition of medicine, placing the welfare of your patients and society above self interest. The boundaries of medicine are wide, encompassing all of the factors that lead to human disease, including those of social, cultural and economic nature. We exhort your class to act upon these values by engaging yourself actively in your community, exerting leadership by responding to the needs of those you serve.

Please remember your Alma Mater with fond regards and continue to nurture the interpersonal relationships you have with your fellow classmates and teachers. I know that both will serve you well in the future.

Best wishes to you as you now pursue your next professional goals. May you be blessed with good health and a sense of well being.

Fraternally yours,

Kenneth J. Veit, D.O.
Dean, PCOM

The Class of 1995 dedicates this Yearbook in memory of

JOANNE GROVE PIERINGER, Ph.D.

The Pieringer Family: Ronald, Laura, JoAnne and David

On July 22, 1994, Dr. JoAnne Pieringer succumbed to her nine year battle with breast cancer at the age of 59. A member of the PCOM family since 1976, Dr. Pieringer's devotion to her work and especially to her students was visible in everything she did. Throughout her illness, she always arranged her schedule so that she never missed a teaching assignment. The Class of 1995 recognized her committment by overwhelmingly voting her Teacher of the Year in 1992. She was a devoted wife and mother survived by her husband of 37 years, Ronald, and their two children, David and Laura. Dr. Pieringer's example of dedication, determination, and courage will remain in the hearts of the thousands of physicians fortunate enough to have known this remarkable woman.

CROSSING THE BAR

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning at the bar,
When I put out to sea,

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;

For tho' from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crost the bar.

GRADUATE PROGRAM IN BIOMEDICAL SCIENCES

The Biomedical Sciences program which began at PCOM in the Fall of 1993 offers a broad content base in the basic biomedical sciences with a strong emphasis on human medicine and applications of the material. It is designed for college graduates who are preparing for admission to medical school and other health professions degree programs but may not currently meet admission requirements. It is expected that many students will be accepted to professional schools upon completion of the first year, but students may choose to continue onto a second year of study to obtain the Master of Science degree in Biomedical Sciences.

THE BUSINESS of MEDICINE: PCOM's D.O./MBA PROGRAM

PCOM in conjunction with St. Joseph's University offers students an augmented degree track aimed at enhancing your efficiency and skills as a clinician by equipping you for the business aspect of medicine. The dual degree program allows for an uninterrupted medical education while pursuing an MBA degree over a period of five academic years and two summer sessions.

Osteopathic Oath

I do hereby affirm my loyalty to the profession I am about to enter. I will be mindful of my responsibility to preserve the health and life of my patients, to perform faithfully my professional duties.

I will be vigilant in aiding in the general welfare of the community.

I will endeavor to work in accord with my colleagues in a spirit of progressive cooperation.

I will look with respect and esteem upon all those who have taught me my art. I will be loyal to my college and strive always for its best interests and for the interests of the students who will come after me. I will be alert to further the application of basic biologic truths and to develop the principles of Osteopathic Medicine.

"All Ye Who Enter Here...pause and remember that you are entering a profession that depends on your understanding of human compassion. If you feel you are unable, for whatever reason, to lend emotional support to human beings, then turn around and go away."

The Big Brother/Big Sister Program began at PCOM in 1991 under the direction of Harry Bramley. This program set out to pair up PCOM students with young boys from the Northern Home for Boys in Roxborough. Throughout the year PCOM students would visit the boys and take part in a variety of activities: Sixers basketball, a carnival, student basketball games, and an annual art show put on by the boys. Shown here are Harry Bramley, Chris Snyder, Jill Thinschmidt, Kerri Taylor enjoying the time spent with their "little brothers." I would just like to thank all my friends, and especially my family for all their support. And I want everyone to know that I can't be held responsible for what I might have said or done these past four years. Unfortunately, I am now about to fall victim to the God of Accountability for the remainder of my life, so please forgive me.

Love to all,
A.J.

By the way;
A wise saying was once overheard while mountain biking fast through the woods of New Jersey, "Just take it with time." And from then on my life became that much simpler.

For me, graduation from medical school means the fulfillment of a lifelong goal as well as the beginning of a challenging and rewarding career. It is a fitting time to thank those who have been with me every step of the way for their encouragement, support, and love; those who mean the world to me, my family. It is my sincerest hope that I may, to some degree, learn to exemplify the qualities in each of you which I admire most. If I am so blessed, it will be these qualities that will make me an exceptional physician in the purest sense of the word.

Dad- integrity, nobility, and constant pursuit of excellence tempered with the kindness and understanding to bring out the best in others.

Mom- eagerness to learn, poise and grace in difficult situations, and immeasurable selflessness.

Dave- self-motivation, problem solving ability, and clarity of thought.

Mark- outgoingness, charisma, persistence, and your ability to find the lighter side of any situation.

Mary- compassion, empathy, a wisdom that goes well beyond your years, and your ability to find that which is good and decent in others.

I LOVE YOU ALL.

To my friends- Who would have thought it could be this much fun, eh? May you never lose your perspective of what is truly important and may the career we begin today always provide each of you with that for which you have chosen it.

As the PCOM mothership shpurts me out of her strange and random orbit toward the unsuspecting planet, acknowledgment is due for the often unrecognized efforts of professors and clinicians who tried to teach my own little collection of neurons. My collection was always impressed by their much larger collections.

Four years of sustenance is quite a task for someone of my delicacy and grace. I appreciate never getting busted for grazing at the salad bar or donut smorgasbord. It was my lovely wife of 1.6 years, Jennifer, and the great friends I've met though, who made life great. This osteopathic journey was made possible by the generous financial and emotional support of Mom, Jennifer, Herb, Sandy, Leib, Benjamin, Jonathan, Jackie, Ken, and my father, Charles. For everyone's help, I will be more than willing to arrange remuneration in digital exams.

To my mother: Your love, support, wisdom and spiritual guidance has made this goal of my life a reality. I always will be indebted to you eternally.

To my wife: Your patience, understanding, love and support was priceless and always will be throughout our lives together.

To my classmates and professors: Your help and support throughout these last four years has made this graduation possible. Much thanks.

I am living proof that miracles still do happen, and that with hard work, dedication, and a desire to do whatever it takes to succeed almost anything is possible. It is amazing to think that a little boy from Calcutta, India is now a doctor in the country where dreams come true--America. My journey has been a long one, filled with peaks and valleys, but I was blessed enough to have a chance to achieve my goals. God surrounded me with good people and gave me heart. I owe so much to so many people, without whom I would not be the person I am today.

Mom & Dad:

What can I say, you're the best parents anyone could ask for. You've both sacrificed so much for me to make all this possible. Mom, thanks for believing in me. On my graduation day, in my heart, we will all be together on stage receiving my medical degree, as this degree is as much mine as it is yours. I only hope I can make you both as proud of me as I am of you both. I love you both dearly from the bottom of my heart.

Dadu & Didu:

Thank you for all your love, blessings and prayers. I could not have achieved this without you both. I love you both so much.

My Family:

Thanks for being there for me and for all the love and support you all have given me.

Loviesh:

You're the best friend anyone could ask for. Thanks for being there for me.

My Friends:

Thank you for all your kindness and generosity. I hope we all remain as close in the future as we were in the past.

As I begin another chapter in my medical career, I can only hope that I can be as fortunate in the future as I am currently.

My friends, old and new: You have been there through good times and bad, I cherish the memories we have shared and the friendships we have built together.
My family: Thank you for the support, guidance, encouragement, and advice that you have lent me through the years. You are the driving force that helped me achieve this and all of my goals.
John: (My twin) You are everything a brother should be. You have always been there for me and my only regret is how quickly our last four years together have been.
Denny: You have been there beside me for so long, it feels that you do not belong any other place. You are very special to me, I love you and will always support your dreams as you have done for me.

To my friends- Thanks for some of the greatest times in the last fouryears. I'll never forget them and look forward to more in the future. Bob- I'll miss your schemes and electronic wizardry; Paul- I'll always remember the mountains and the toilet incident; Bob & Paul- I'll miss the rat-terd doughnuts and the screaming Vikings; Mike- I'll never forget the late nitetrips to Pat's...Cheez wiz with! and how you managed to get through med school reading the Daily News; Steph & Jill- I'll miss our arguments...love yas; Tammi- One thing - Cha! You guys mean a lot to me and I'll never forget you.
Tracy- Reminding you once again, that it is never too late to change your mind...think medicine.
Jacqui- To my med school roomy, thanks for your support, patience, and understanding during the first two years. It was an experience toremember, and I wouldn't have had it any other way.
Mom & Dad- Thank you for your support, encouragement, blessings, and most importantly, tuition coupons. I am confident that I'll be a responsible and compassionate doctor thanks to my role model...you Dad. Thank you.

"The physician in his three fold capacity, as a professional, as a member of society, and as a human being, has throughout history helped man in his physical, mental, and social ascent. As a professional man in particular, the physician has always acted as healer, using magic, faith, empiricism, or rational resources; as a knower, for he knows the secrets of nature and of the human being; as a preventer, for he can arrest disease by forstalling its inroads before they develop; and as an organizer, for he can guide society in fighting the historicosocial process called disease. To heal, to know, to prevent, to organize - these will be our four future spheres of professional activity, embraced in the expression "to be a doctor."

MOM and DAD - My whole life you have been supporting me, caring for me, and never doubting me. I have the greatest parents in the world and I love you both very much.
AMY - My wife. My love. The world is a better place because of you. You are caring and compassionate, patient and kind, intelligent and beautiful. You will be an excellent physician, because you are the best person I know. I love you.

Take a moment to contemplate the journey. Starting early in life and growing with each passing year, until the time that you will have the privilege of being called "Doctor." Nothing comes close to the challenges and joys of medicine. People see you as a friend, a confidant, a detective, and a therapist, but most importantly they see you as a doctor.
What an honor.

"50 years ago, for five minutes you came this close (one inch). I mean it would kill some men to get that close to their dream and not touch it. They would consider it a tragedy."

Love & Thank You...
To my parents - who never asked why, never said I couldn't, and never pressured, but stood behind me through everything, giving me the courage and strength to keep going; and for always asking what happened to the other two points.

To my family & friends - Lori, Thomas, MomMom, and all my family, for your support and encouragement; Michael & Anthony, for filling that void, and reminding me why; Cam & Julie, for being there every time I came back; Bob, Paul & John, for dragging me kicking and screaming through this, keeping me sane with your insanity; and Uncle Paul, my first (and constant) patient.

To Michael - for walking ahead of me when I needed to be lead, behind me when I needed to be caught, and beside me through everything else; for being stubborn enough to stay, for being who you are and what you are; for making my life complete.

To God - for love, strength, guidance, and the magic and wonder of children; and for black coffee & donuts, Christmas & summer, rain cancelled tee times, Colleen stories, credit cards, and shoes.

I can't believe that my formal education is almost over. It has been a long journey; one with many rewards and good times along the way. Before I go, there are a few people I must mention who have been instrumental in helping to make it happen. Without their support and encouragement, the whole trip would not have been possible:

I want to thank you, Mom and Dad, for encouraging me each step of the way and for letting me know you'd support me in whatever I did, as long as I gave it my best shot. Because you gave me the room to spread my wings, I am now having the opportunity to fly, and realize my dreams. Thanks!

To my sister Linda, who has proven to be a best friend through it all. Thanks for being my comrade, confidant and partner in crime. It is nice to know that I will always have someone to whom I can turn (note the grammar) in every situation.

And Michael, what can I say? Your unconditional friendship has been a wonderful surprise. You have taught me so much about caring for people and the world around me. Though our future is so uncertain, I do know that wherever you go, that corner of the world will be a little bit brighter.

God bless us, everyone!

My deepest gratitude is to the following:
MY FATHER: for teaching me the value of working hard; MY MOTHER: for her listening, compassion, and wisdom; MY BROTHERS, SISTERS, AND THEIR SPOUSES: I was inspired by your successes, I gained confidence through your support, I found my strength from your prayers; MY NIECES AND NEPHEWS: for believing in me; WILLIAM AND NANCY: for your prayers; MOM AND POP ERVIN: No part of this could have been achieved without you. Your understanding, patience, prayers, time and assistance have greatly eased the burden of this long journey. I could never thank you enough!! MY WIFE, DEB: There is no person in this world more special than you. Without your constant, tireless, supportive efforts this would all still be my dream. I Love You, Gorgeous!

"When things go wrong as they sometimes will,
When the road you're trudging seems all uphill,
When the funds are low and the debts are high and you want to smile, but you have to sigh,
When care is pressing you down a bit,
Rest if you must, but don't you quit!
Success is failure turned inside out,
the silver tint of the clouds of doubt,
And you can never tell how close you are,
It may be near when it seems so far;
So stick to the fight when you're hardest hit,
It's when things seem worse that you must not quit!"

This degree is dedicated to every member of my family, especially Mom, Dad and Jacque. It seemed as if you were the ones who bore the brunt of those extra stressful times. Thank you all for sharing my anxieties, accomplishments, good days and not so good days. Each of you has contributed in your own special way to make me the person I am today.

Mom and Dad thanks for your unconditional love, support, and the room to make mistakes. You allowed me to choose my own paths and return home when the paths came to an end. Most of all thanks for believing in me and my dream. Without the two of you, I would never have made it this far. Be very proud -- You have earned it!

Jacque, what can I say, you have put up with a ton. You kept me on target and did not let me get away with too much. Thanks for ALWAYS being there.

Rich and Chris, we have been through a lot together. Always remember that no matter where I am or what I'll be doing, I'll always be there for you.

Nothing worthwhile ever comes easy, and the struggle to become a physician is definitely a challenge, but it is well worth the reward. The four year journey through medical school was not a road travelled alone. To my family and friends who have been my rock and my stronghold, it is from the depths of my heart that I thank you for walking before me, guiding me with your never-ending love; beside me, supporting me with your words of encouragement; and behind me, motivating me when I didn't believe in myself...and for the times when I felt like giving up, I thank you for carrying me. With much love and gratitude, Emma.

As I look back on my four years of medical school, I realize that I have so much for which to be thankful -- a supportive family, a wonderful network of friends, and an invaluable experience that I hope will guide me in becoming a dynamic and compassionate physician. I am grateful to the Lord for His hand on my life during this time of exhaustive studying and exuberant experiences. He is my Rock, my Salvation and my Fortress, in Him, and Him alone, will I always place my trust.

I would like to take this time to remember and thank my parents who have provided me with so much that I could fill the page listing it all; for my grandparents who fed me endlessly and then gave me a week's worth of meals to take home; for brothers and sisters who made me laugh and relax and who prayed for me during the long hours of studying; and to my beautiful, precious wife who is the most loving, patient woman I could ever find. To all of you, thank you. This experience has been made better because of you.

Mom and Dad,

One lifetime, yet alone one page, could never be enough to express my love and gratitude for all you have done to get me here today. All that I have I owe to both of you. Your unselfish sacrifices and constant love exceed all bounds a son could ever ask of his parents. My hope is to be as you, in mind and heart. I wish I had more than one lifetime to spend with you.

We have grown closer and strengthened a bond few brothers share. I always grew up in your shadow and there you taught me more than you'll know. I can't wait for the day to take you in my plane; but this time, it will be you who's in a loop!

Nana,

Family, Friends, and Puppy Dogs (FFP)...
...after that list includes a bunch of little things like career, status, politics, etc. Religion, of course, is buried within FFP, and truthfully, it has to be strong or else your FFP stinks.

First and foremost, I want to thank my parents, Mary and Joe, and the gang; Monica, Kevin, and Sean. As a family, we developed strong family and social morals and support for each other. It was these morals that helped me decide to be a physician and your support that gave me the strength to actually become one.

MOM: Thank you for believing in me and for giving me the support I needed to get through this experience. I could never have completed this journey without you. I love you, Mom.

NAUN & PEEP: Thank you for your love and your prayers. I am truly blessed to have two people in my life that take care of me the way you do.

FAMILY: I am very fortunate to be surrounded by so many people who care. I guess it's time to repay my debt to all of you with free medical services.

DENISE & MICHAEL: I did not expect to have someone to share this dream with, but you both came into my life and made me realize that dreams do come true. Thank you D.

FRIENDS: I wish each of you all of the success in this world. I have learned so much from all of you, simply stated... Thank you.

I can't believe this day has finally come. I'm actually a doctor. This is truly my greatest accomplishment, but I have not done it alone. There are so many people to thank. I wish I could name them all.

Mom-mom: You were the first to push me in this direction. It was you who told me, "someday, you will be a doctor," (even though I wanted to be a Phillie). I guess you can say I told you so!

My Parents: Your example, your guidance, and your support have been my inspiration. You are the two greatest people I know. I could not have done this without you. I love you both!

Dave: My brother and my friend. You were always there. With your support and your craziness, you helped to keep me sane.

Jackie: You are the best thing that has happened in my life! Thank you for all your love and support. Most of all, thanks for putting up with me! You are my world, and I love you!

My Friends: Thank you for always being there. Best of luck in whatever direction life may take you. May we always remain together.

To my parents: Thank you for the sacrifices you've made so that I could follow my dream, but most of all for the love and support you've always given to me. You are my heroes - the wind beneath my wings.

To my brothers: Vince, I'm sorry I beat you up when we were little! I'm glad we're friends now. I'm very proud of you. Jim, thanks for making me laugh. You'll be successful in whatever you do. You have a good heart.

To my cousin, Joe: You're the best firefighter I know.

Andi Kelly: my "square root." You will be an excellent physician. Thanks for always being there and for 12 years of memories. You will always be close to my heart.

To my grandparents: Thanks for your love and support because it made this all worth it.

To my extended family: Thanks for all your encouragement.

To the Thorp Family: Thanks for seven wonderful years of being accepted into your family.

And George: Well Geek, We made it! Thanks for keeping me sane through med school and for the faith you have in me. I look forward to spending our lives TOGETHER and sharing our dreams. I love you!

Grandma and Grandpap Dietrick, you've been an inspiration to all of us: an accountant, electrician, 2 nurses, doctor, lawyer, 2 engineers?, and 6 more lives yet to be molded. You have a lot to be proud of. Thanks! Grandma and Grandpap Dolansky, thank you for your guidance from above. We miss you.

Dad, Mom, Sean, Jay, Jen, and Ashley, none of this would be worth it if I didn't have the best family in the world behind me. I'd be happy if I could repay you for half of the love and support you've given to me (Don't worry, I will repay you 100% of the money).

Bryan, Cecelia, Jay, Johnny, and Ken,(Samantha,Michelle, and Rhonda,too) I couldn't have handpicked a better group of friends with which to spend an extra year (and$30,000). Good Luck, and long live Stan!

Brett and Liann, I love you guys like a brother and sister. You've been great friends to me. I don't know when, but sometime, somehow, I will repay you for your generosity. Love you!

Lori, although we've known each other for a short time, you mean so much to me. Who knows what the future holds, but you'll always have a special place in my heart. Trust me!

Most of all, I'd like to thank God and ask His blessing on me and all my friends as we embark on the future.

Thank you to all my family and friends for their endless support.

MOM: Even though my going to school meant such a hardship, you never thought of yourself but rather, encouraged me to be the best I can be. Whenever I hit a bump in the road, you taught me that hardship builds character. You taught me lessons on compassion that I could never learn from a book and that loving and caring for others is one of the most beautiful gifts one can give. Thank you for believing in me when others said it couldn't be done.

DAD: Even though your life was to end when I was young, I have beautiful memories of your endless patience, kindness, and love. Every heart I take care of is in honor of yours. If I can't save them down here, you show them the way up there. Until we meet again...

THE LIVING HAND, NOW WARM AND CAPABLE

This living hand, now warm and capable
Of earnest grasping, would if it were cold
And in the icy silence of the tomb,
So haunt thy days and chill thy dreaming nights
That thou wouldst wish thine own heart dry of blood.
So in my veins red life might stream again,
And thou be conscience-calmed - see here it is -
I hold it towards you.

To My Cherished Family:

Thank you for always being there for me whether by phone, check, or hanky. Your unfailing confidence and unconditional love have given me the strength to be who I am today. You have taught me honesty, integrity, sensitivity, loyalty, perseverence, and a solid work ethic. I have and will strive to model my character after the kind of people you have always been. I have the highest love and respect for you. I honor you by the person I have become and by the life I will lead. Thank you. I LOVE YOU!

P.S. For Daddy and Mama

1968 A daughter was born.

1973 A little girl stands tearful, in front of her school each day. Holding her Daddy's white hanky, she softly whispers "I think I can...I think I can."

1986 College begins. The white hanky lies in her drawer-waiting and ready. A new edition- AT & T.

1991 A more mature young woman enters medical school. Secretly wishing for the days of Daddy's white hankies, she internally rehearses the chant of old, " I think I can."

1995 Graduation- "I think I can" becomes "I know I can!"

To My Mother: Even if I said a thousand "thank you's" and a million "I love you's," it would never come close to what I truly feel in my heart. You were always there for me to wipe away my tears of frustration and to share in the happiness of my success. And it's all because of you, mom, your unending love, patience and dedication, that I'm a doctor today. So again, thank you, and remember, I'll always love you.

To My Family and Friends: Thanks to my brother and sister-in-law for allowing me to live in your home for weeks on end and to my friends for putting up with endless hours of complaining and tears. Without you, I could have never survived all those late nights, early mornings and "first days."

To My Family, how can I ever thank you? Had it not been for your help and support in so many ways, I would not be standing at this threshold of a new life. Mom, Dad, and Tony: your weekly calls when I could not get home helped make the long weeks pass. To Jan, Matt, Bob, Chris, and Jennifer: thank you for opening your house to me to break those bouts of cabin fever. The time you all shared with me is a gift I'll always treasure. Each and everyone of you have given me more than you will ever know. You gave me more than I can ever repay.

To my fellow classmates, who are both friends and colleagues: I wish to say farewell but not good-bye. I would like to thank each and every one of you for the help and support that you have given over the past four years. To those at my anatomy lab table: Joanne, Emily, and Paul, a special thanks for all your help. I wish you all the very BEST. May your futures be bright and your days filled only with happiness. There are several people who, without their incessant enthusiasm, support, encouragement and guidance, I would never have followed through and come to Philadelphia to study medicine. These people are my family.

Mom and Dad, always worried; all the telephone calls, all the letters, all the discussions were immensely worthwhile. My two sisters, Gladys and Giselle, never once did they fail to be present. My godfather, Dr. Pérez-Pérez, who always helped me clear my train of thought. My grandmother and Aunt Carmita, thank you for all your words of optimism. My Aunt Teresa and Placido, thank you for all of your help. My goddaughters, Christina, Belkis, and Beatrice, your smiles, laughter, free spirit, and innocence fill my life. The rest of my family, thank you all.

I also thank God. For whenever I found myself alone, He was the only one to turn to for company. Last, but never least, PCOM, thank you for an excellent education.

Through the passage of time one can only value the sacrifices one makes to achieve his or her goals. These last four years have been full of those sacrifices that brought forth much growth and understanding of the human kind. If I would have to do it all over again, I would never hesitate one second.

when I grow up

I would like to be a doctor when I grow up. I do like school work quite a bit. I do not know how long I would have to go to school. I like to work with my hands very much. I like to be outside but I would probably have to be inside most of the time. For this job I would be with many people. Twenty years from now I hope that I will be done with school and working as a doctor.

In appreciation to those individuals who made my education an easier and more pleasurable experience, I dedicate this page...

To my parents: for all their love, hard work, and relentless support. I would have never accomplished this goal without you. I am blessed to have parents like you.

To my brother: There is no better friend than a brother, especially a little brother because I could beat the heck out of you to vent my frustrations.

To the marvelous cooks in the family: for the plethora of homemade, Italian care packages.

To the entire family: for their own financial aid which I do understand is interest free. Of course, we cannot forget accepting the collect phone calls.

To my friends: for all the good times.

And to Tamara: I hope you understand how special you are to me. You were always there for me, even when I was not there for you. I will always love you and be there for you. "Everything I do, I do it for you." -Bryan Adams

"I am a medicine man--a wicasa wakan (holy man). The wicasa wakan wants to be by himself. He wants to be away from the crowd. He likes to meditate, leaning against a tree or rock, feeling the earth move beneath him, feeling the weight of that big flaming sky upon him. That way he can figure things out. Closing his eyes, he sees many things clearly.

The wicasa wakan loves the silence--a loud silence which tells him of many things. He sits facing the west, asking for help. He talks to the plants and they answer him. He listens to the voices of the wama kaskan--all those who move upon the earth, the animals. He is as one with them. From all the living beings something flows into him all the time, and something flows from him...

I am a medicine man because a dream told me to be one...There is nothing I can, or want, to do about it. I have passed through all the phases and [now pass] from this to a higher spot."

I would like to dedicate this page to those people who have been my support emotionally, spiritually and physically over the past four years and beyond.

To my wife, Nancy: together we have seen the highest highs and the lowest lows. We have built a family together, and my career decisions have always been family decisions. We have made it through medical school. We will make it through internship, residency and anything else that lies ahead for us. My children, Rebecca and Jared have always helped me balance my life during medical school. They have taught me to appreciate the simple pleasures of life: playing in the playground, dancing in the living room, going for a walk. They remind me that there are important things in life other than the study of medicine. My parents, "Bruce & Syl" have always been there for me. I use their life as a yard stick to measure my own. My brothers, Steve and Mike, and their families have also helped me and my family get through the past four years. My sister Anne; I appreciate all that she has taught me and her encouragement to become an outstanding osteopathic physician. My mother-in-law, Margot Krisch, "Oma"; she imparts to me her vast experience as a floor nurse, comparing my experience with that of the residents with whom she works. She has given of herself, and I thank her very much.

To all of these people I cannot adequately express my gratitude.

Love, Barry

Thank you God for blessing me with wonderful parents and for giving me intelligence, patience, and an infinite love of children.

To my brother, Jeffrey - Your life taught me strength and sensitivity. If I make a difference in a child's life, your life will have served God's special purpose, and your spirit will live on forever.

To my parents - You have inspired and encouraged me to become the woman I am. I can't express how much I love you. Thank you for your sacrifices and support. Thank you for allowing me to grow and for being there when I need you. I owe you more than I can ever repay. Your "Peanut" is finally a doctor!!

To my sisters - You are no longer just "the girls" but my best friends too. You've helped me to see my good qualities when I felt insecure, and you always make me laugh, especially when I need to laugh. Thanks - I love you!!

I dedicate this page to the two most special people in my life: Sweetheart and Sweetie. We will probably always look back on these four years with great fondness and remember the precious moments we have had. Thanks to you sweetheart, the last four years have not only been bearable but filled with joy. I think of the long hours studying and the on-call nights, and how you were there supporting and encouraging me. You were always a stabilizing force in an otherwise hectic four years. There are far too many hearts and minds for only you and me to share. Sweetie, you entered my life and have turned it upside down. More important and precious than anything I could learn in school are the things that you have taught me. You've helped me to realize that one's profession is miniscule in significance when compared to a father and daughter's time. I hope and pray that I never lose sight of the fact that you are so important to me. Thank you, Tinker, for the best of times, and thank you, Arielle, for bringing new meaning to my life. May we continue to grow together as we share life's pleasures. I love you.

Mom, Dad, Cheryl, Gram, and Francine - Just saying "thank you" would never be enough to express my appreciation for all you have done for me. Without your unending love, support, generosity, and friendship, I never would have been able to realize my dream of becoming a doctor. I truly am blessed to have such a wonderful family. I love you all dearly and I hope to one day be able to repay you for all your sacrifices.

Larry - Having you in my life made medical school tolerable. You truly are my best friend and I'll always love you. You're going to be a wonderful surgeon!

To all my friends - Thank you for your support and for keeping me sane!

On this page I would like to thank my family for their constant love and support not only through medical school but for the past twenty-five years. I would not be in this position today had it not been for the positive family environment in which I was raised.

Most importantly, this page is dedicated to my wonderful wife and fellow classmate, Michelle. When I met you we were both beginning the eight year journey toward this degree. Striving to reach this goal together has been a unique experience which has made our relationship stronger and made the journey so much more fulfilling. We've had our obstacles, our disappointments, and our difficulties, but overcoming them with your help has made these past eight years more rewarding than I could have imagined. I want to thank you, Michelle, because this achievement was made possible because of your help, support, and understanding. I can't imagine going through the past eight years without you by my side, and I look forward to enjoying the rest of my life with you.
I love you.

I'd like to dedicate the career I'm about to embark on to the following people:

To Mom and Dad: For your unwavering dedication and faith in me; I hope I can do as much for my children as you've done for me.
To My Wife, Kimberly: You've made the journey fun and interesting thus far. I look forward to each new day's travels with you.
To My Grandparents: Each and every one of you have influenced the way I'll enjoy life and practice medicine.
To Chris, Maria, and Karl: Whenever I think the stress is getting to be too much, you seem to know just how weird to make things.
And to all of my friends: I know I could not have made it whithout your support and encouragement.
I love you all for everything you've done for me.

I would first like to give God praise for making this day possible.

To my loving husband: Thank you for your boundless patience and understanding. You gave me confidence when I felt like I couldn't make it through one more day of med school. Your encouragement has helped me to accomplish things that I thought were impossible. I love you with all my heart and look forward to spending many more years with you.

Mom and Dad: I am blessed to have wonderful parents like you. Thank you for raising me in a loving home, for providing everything I needed, for giving me love and guidance, and for making me believe that I could be anything I wanted to be. I love you!

Karyn and Yolanda: I will always treasure our friendship. We have endured many hardships during these four years, but we stuck together through it all. With you two around, there was always someone to talk to, a shoulder to cry on, and someone to laugh with. I am thankful to have found two true friends.

To my family and friends : Thank you for your words of encouragement and for keeping me in your thoughts and prayers.

To my family with love,

.....The years of our lives are like a cup of wine poured out for us to drink. The grapes when they are pressed give forth their good juices for the wine. Under the winepress of time, our lives give forth their labor, honor, and love.

As we drink from this cup, so may we under God's guidance in union and devotion to each other, draw contentment, comfort, and felicity from this cup of life. May we find life's joys doubly gladdened; its bitterness, sweetened; and all things hallowed by true companionship and love....

Many members of my family have never known me to be at a loss for words especially when our opinions differ. However, trying to find the words to express my feelings has become increasingly difficult. Please bear with me. Mom, you gave, and gave, and gave just as your own mother did without stopping to think of yourself for even one moment. Lisa and I were always top priority. Never for even one second did we not feel we were loved. Teaching was your career and by every means you have taught us everything we ever needed to learn! Lisa, Bill, Lauren, and the rest of my family, the more I moved with college, the Navy, and with medical school, the more I missed all of you. Coming home is one of my favorite things to do. Thanks for your many years of love, support, encouragement, and understanding. Jill, you stood by me when others would have given up. Now as we look to start a new life together as husband and wife, I would like to tell you how proud I am of you, how much love and happiness you have brought to my life, and how much I look forward to growing old with you.

Mom & Dad: We finally made it! Your years of support and confidence have finally come to fruition. I'll never be able to thank you enough or repay you for all that you've done for me throughout the years, but I'll start by saying, "I love you both."
Liann: It wasn't long ago that we began a lifelong journey. Now we embark on another one together. Thanks for the love, support, and understanding. May this adventure be as enjoyable as our first.
Rob: We met by coincidence, but a wonderful friendship has grown ever since. Thanks for your help and companionship. I wish you only the best -- you deserve it!
My private support group: It's here! I'm done! And with your help, I've managed to maintain my sanity. Mark & Colleen - thanks for your love, support, and your house. Bonnie - your talks, encouragement, and pride mean more than I could ever express. Mike & Lisa - you've made Liann and me part of your family and given us the invaluable gift of friendship - thanks!

I have always dreamed of living in the country, where vast, snow-capped mountains stretch endlessly. I live in a log home with a fireplace for the white winters and a hammock for the green summers. I'm the ultimate rural doc!

Well, the time draws near...but I wouldn't have made it without my family's continual support. I want to thank my sisters, Sue and Laurie, for dealing with me from the beginning and not killing me. To my Dad, the best role model a son could have. My foremost wish is to be as wonderful a father for my kids as you have been for me. You and Teri gave me the confidence to try new things and the support I needed when things went astray. Mom, I want to thank you for being my best friend. No one knows me better or has helped me through more agonizing times. I will always treasure our companionship. A special thanks to my grandmother. You have backed me through all my endeavors; I could not be more appreciative or grateful. And Mary, thank you for showing me a world of hope and happiness, may we never lose sight of that, or each other.

Tucked away in our subconscious is an idyllic vision:
We see ourselves on a long trip that spans the continent...
But uppermost in our minds is the final destination:
On a certain day, at a certain time
We will pull into the station
Bands will be playing and flags waving
Once we get there so many wonderful dreams will come true
And the pieces of our lives will fit together like a complicated jigsaw puzzle
How restlessly we pace the aisles
Damming the minutes loitering waiting, waiting, waiting for the station...
Sooner or later we must realize that there is no station
No one place to arrive at once and for all
The true joy of life is the trip
The station is only a dream
It constantly out distances us...
So -- stop pacing the aisles and counting the miles
Instead, climb more mountains
Eat more ice cream, go barefoot more often
Swim more rivers, watch more sunsets
Laugh more, cry less
Life must be lived as we go along
The station will come soon enough...

"Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ." Ephesians 5:20

All of my thanks are to God who gave me the perfect role models of love and determination, Mom-Mom and Mommie; the mentor, Dr. Leonard Johnson; and all of the other family and friends whose unswerving faith and support has brought me this far. I will quote the following words to serve as reminders for all of us planning futures in public service:

Those who have ceased to love
have not ceased to need,
those who have ceased to care
have not ceased to bleed;
Do not weigh the words that Never ask, the minds that never
Seek, nor mark the averted faces,
But see the heart.

Not many people reach their goal in life without a tremendous amount of love and support from others. I am no exception. I am blessed with a loving and caring family who encouraged my desires to become a physician, and I would like to take this opportunity to thank them for everything.

To Dad and Maryclaire - When I had so many reasons why not to go to medical school, it was you who saw a way to make it work. You never doubted my ability to succeed and instilled me with confidence and self esteem. Thank you for your constant support and the many sacrifices it took to make this day a reality.

To Mom - who has given me the skills to accomplish any task.

To Mom and Dad Jacoby - my "in-law"-full support team.

To Michele - whose influence on my life has made it possible to accomplish any goal. It is through your love that I find my strength.

To my children - The three lights in my life. You have been so supportive of me even though sometimes things were tough. I hope each of you gets to make a dream a reality as I have. Thanks for all the good luck kisses!

To David - It is you to whom I owe the most. You encouraged an idea to become a dream and then a reality without hesitating to make the sacrifices it would entail. You have been there for me always. Without your words of encouragement, your faith in me, and your strength, this would not have been possible. Thank you for being the man you are. I love you more than I can say.

IF

If you can keep your head when all about you are losing theirs and blaming you,
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
But make allowance for their doubting too;
If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,
or being lied about, don't deal in lies, or being hated, don't give way to hating,
And yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise;
If you can dream - and not make dreams your master;
If you can think - and not make thoughts your aim;
If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster and treat those two impostors just the same;
If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools.
Or watch the things you gave your life to, broken,
and stoop and build' em up with worn-out tools:
If you can fill the unforgiving minute with sixty seconds' worth of distance run,
Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it
And - which is more - you'll be a Man, my son!

First of all, the fourth year of medical school should be SALARIED! Second of all, you can not do a good osteopathic treatment in five minutes. Third, always remember that wherever you go - there you are.

Thank you to all of my family and friends for making it possible for me to survive medical school, including: Mom, Dad, Julie, Donna (who will be my wife by the time you read this), Grandma Eleanor, Grandma Margit, and everyone else (you know who you are).

-Dad, I know you told me to go to law school. Aren't you glad I didn't?
-Mom, I know you wanted me to be an architect. Well?
-Julie, you should consider medical office management as a career. You're the Best.
-Donna, you have just made everything better. I love you.

Let me leave medical school with one of my favorite lyrics:

It's hard to write a song with bitter fingers,
So much to prove so few to tell you why,
Those old-die hards in Denmark Street start laughing
At the keyboard players hollow haunted eyes.
It seems to me a change is really needed
I'm sick of tral la las and la de das.
No more long days hocking hunks of garbage
Bitter fingers never swung on swinging stars. -Elton John/Bernie Taupin

How do you begin to thank your parents, the people who gave you life and made sure you were warm and safe? I don't know, but Mom & Dad I love you for always supporting and believing in me... especially when I was too weak to believe in myself.
Robert, even though it seems like we are worlds apart, I know that you are always there for me. I Love you, Big Brother.

Well, pretty soon the "Triplets" will be separated. In four short years we have lived a life time, from the laughter to the tears. Yolanda & Yvette, you have been the sisters I've always wanted and I hope we will never lose each other.

Blake, you light up the gloomy days and I'm glad I finally have someone like you in my life. You will always have a special place in my heart.

Lord ,thank-you for Psalm:23

"Here I am..."
Since a little girl, I have wanted to be on this page; as one of the steps in my growth, in search of the miraculous, along the path to awareness. To the Great Physician, thank You for all the gifts, blessings, and challenges that You have given me. I am so grateful for those people You have provided to help me along the way:
Mom: for teaching me about Jesus, and about treating others with respect; for inviting me into your world of innocence and faith.
Dad: for showing me how to work hard and live honest; for welcoming me with open arms and an open door; for your generous love, wisdom, and support.
Grandmom/Pop-pop: for nurturing me with the sweetest of love. Grams: for influencing me by your life of compassion and strength; and Pop: for the precious memories of your humor and kindness.
Aunt Elise: for your smile, laughter, youthful spirit and support.
Anthony: (by your example) for defining the terms - freedom, service, physician, and friend. You have changed my life, challenged my ideas, opened my eyes, and have entered my heart forever. "For all that has been - thanks; for all that will be - Yes."
Dear Mary: for hearing, comforting, providing, and guiding me.

"I do this because I believe I am doing it for Jesus. I am very sure that this is His work. I am very sure. I am very sure that it is He and not me." Mother Teresa

My parents always said I could do anything I put my mind to with Jesus Christ. Thanks Mom and Dad for your love, encouragement, and prayers. You believed in me even when I did not believe in myself and helped make my dream a reality. Thanks Joel, Michelle, and Andrew for your support throughout Medical School. You guys are the best! To my friends and the rest of my family, I couldn't have done it without you! Most of all I thank God for giving me the strength I needed to get through the last four years!

To Mom and Dad: Thanks for all of your love and support in the past four years. You have always been the rock on which I could lean. No matter how far apart we were you were always just a phone call away. You have enriched my life in ways I'll never be able to repay. Thank you for not only being my parents but also my friends. Now it's time for me to spread my wings and search for my "Corner of the Sky." I will always love you.

To my Sister and Brother and their families: You have all inspired me in so many different ways. Thanks for shaping me into the person I am and for giving me the reason to succeed in this journey.

To all my friends at school and at home: Thank you for making the past few years bearable. I knew I could always count on you to bring me up when I was feeling down. Thanks for the laughs.

To Grandma and Grandpa Maeder: I wish you could be here for this happy time in my life. Your memories are always with me.

I would like to thank the most important people in my life for helping me realize my dream of becoming a physician.

To my handsome, wonderful husband:
Alex, you have been my inspiration, my guidance, and my love. I've never known a more remarkable person. You have shown and given me more than a thousand people will ever know in a lifetime. I never thought life could be so happy, so fun, and so filled with love. I look forward to every day of the rest of my life with you.

To my Mom and Dad:
You have always been there for me, always encouraging me, never giving me a chance to say those dreaded words, "I can't." I still hear you saying, "You can be anything you want to be." Well, as always, you were right! Thanks!

To my beautiful daughter:
Fallon, I thank you for making me a more loving, caring and compassionate person. I never knew I could love so much until the day you were born. I love you little sweetie!

These have been, by far, the most difficult four years of my life. I am mentally, physically and spiritually drained. But when I think about how much I've learned, I am in awe. That thought returns to me, the excitement and the energy I had as a five year old. I now know how to help the sick and the suffering and no one can take that knowledge away. What a wonderful gift. I have many people to thank for that gift....

Thank you Mom and Dad for all the financial, emotional and dietary support. Nothing feels better than a hot meal, and an extra twenty bucks, or hearing your mother say, "This is my son, he's going to be a surgeon!"...Thank you Noni and Grandpa. Your constant medical questions always made me feel important and inspired me to work harder....Thank you Bonnie and Mike. Your late night phone calls of support were the best study breaks ever....Thank you Henry David Thoreau. Your writings are an inspiration.....

Lastly, thank you Nicole Decker! Your support and interest in what I do gives me the strength and the confidence to do anything. You are a lifesaver and I love you.

It's hard to put into words all that I feel about this time in my life. I guess I'd say I'm thrilled that my largest goal has finally been accomplished. Time has gone by so quickly. Already it's time to take the first step towards a whole new goal with all its excitement and uncertainty. Although I'm unsure what the future will bring, there's one thing I do know - I couldn't have made it this far without the endless encouragement of the many special people in my life. Often going above and beyond the call of duty, I'd like to thank them.

First, I'd like to thank God for the gifts He has blessed me with and the determination to use them towards the calling of medicine.

To my parents: You are the most important people in my life. You were beside me through the bad times, and helped me celebrate the good times. You are my best friends, and I'll always love and be grateful to you. Now, you can relax and be happy because I'm finally getting a job.

My friends: We've had some great times together. You've made the last four years very special. Thank you for all the wonderful memories. What can I say, we make a really great team.

To all the others who have given me the wisdom, strength and confidence to make it this far - I thank you endlessly.

Dear Friends...

I thank my God every time I remember you. In all my prayers for all of you, I pray with joy because of your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now, being confident of this, that he who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus.

It is right for me to feel this way about all of you, since I have you in my heart; for whether I am in chains or defending and confirming the gospel, all of you share in God's grace with me. God can testify how I long for all of you with the affection of Christ Jesus.

And this is my prayer: that your love may abound more and more in knowledge and depth of insight, so that you may be able to discern what is best and may be pure and blameless until the day of Christ, filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ - to the glory and praise of God.

Thank you:
Grandma, you taught me how to smile and enjoy life. You've always been my favorite person.
Grandpa, you cared for my wounds, taught me about respect and empathy for my fellow man, and introduced me to the concept of health and well-being. You were your family's first doctor, I miss you.
Dad, you warmed me up before all those big games, and now you warm my heart with your support and confidence. Your strength has made me strong.
Susan, Mary Margaret and Joseph, so much has strengthened the bond and faith amongst us. I am proud to be your brother.
Nick, my "best man," mentor, and colleague...
Heather, your love has shined a new light onto my life. Thanks for sharing these times with me.
Mom, you nurtured me as a boy and allowed me to grow as a man. You taught me to have faith in God, hope for the future, and love of oneself. All throughout life, I've borrowed your wisdom and courage to keep moving forward. The physician I become is the son you have raised. You are God's Greatest Gift.

Although my life has been full of rich rewards, none have been sweeter than those I have experienced over the past four years. Graduation from the Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine will mark the pinnacle of my academic career. The academic accomplishments and the lasting friendships have made the last four years the most rewarding of my life. None of this would be possible if it were not for the unconditional love and support of my family. Although their sacrifices will be impossible to repay, they will never be forgotten.

My friends both inside PCOM and out have made the past four years so memorable. Their enthusiasm, support, insight and good humor have richly influenced my life. We entered with childlike enthusiasm,
We leave with heavy hearts and battle scarred lives.
We studied, worked, laughed, cried, saved a few, and lost a few.
Our lives were totally changed.
Becoming a physician transforms one's life and being forever.

Laurie, my partner, best friend and wife.
She worked and cried along my side.
I never told her how much I appreciated her silent support and understanding with my "other marriage" to medicine.
I'm sorry I neglected you.

To my office staff: You really bore the brunt of my return to school.
I couldn't have made it without your hard work to support me through school.
Thank you all and I'll never forget you.

To my family, friends and everyone else. I appreciate your patience and tolerance.
Now its my time to give back.

Mom,
Thanks for always being there with a warm smile, a listening ear and a word of encouragement. Thanks for taking the time to do the "little things" that have become important memories of my childhood. Thanks for always being so selfless and giving.
Dad,
Thanks for having confidence in me even when I didn't. Your constant presence and influence in my life has helped me to attain all of my goals. Your love and sacrifice will always be appreciated.
Chris - my brother and best friend,
Thanks for listening and always being a great friend when I really needed one. Your constant joking has taught me not to take myself too seriously. Good luck in your career.
My Grandparents,
I wish that you were here to share this day with me. Thank you for all your kindness and love. You all share a special place in my heart. You will never be forgotten.
To all my friends at PCOM,
Thanks for making the last four years so much fun. Good luck - you're all going to make great docs!!

"I learned this, at least, by experiment; that if one advances confidently in the direction of his dreams, and endeavors to live the life which he has imagined, he will meet with a success unexpected in common hours." Henry David Thoreau

There is not enough room on this page to express my thanks and appreciation to the one person in my life who has made my success possible; the one person in my life who has always stood by me in good times and bad, for richer and for poorer (this is definitely the latter), my best friend, my wife, Rene. Thank you for all you do for me, I couldn't have done this without you!

To my children, Allison, Kyle and Michael: You have all given me such joy, love, and laughter. I am very proud of each of you. You are the wind beneath my wings, the smile on my face, and the song in my heart!

To my parents, Walter and Marion: You gave me life, love and never-ending encouragement and support. You have always found a way to make my road a little smoother. I will always carry your loving spirit in my heart.

To my wife's parents, Irene and John, and sister, Aunt Jane: You all definitely deserve honorable mention for all of the loving care you provide the kids while Rene and I attend to our crazy schedules. Thank you so much!

To all those important people who have given my life meaning, thank you. I will dedicate my life as a healer to all of you.

O God, let my mind be ever clear and enlightened. By the bedside of the patient let no alien thought deflect it. Let everything that experience and scholarship have taught it be present in it and hinder not in its tranquil work. For great and noble are those scientific judgements that serve the purpose of preserving the health and lives of Thy creatures.

Keep far from me the delusion that I can accomplish all things. Give me the strength, the will, and the opportunity to amplify my knowledge more and more. Today I can disclose things in my knowledge which yesterday I would not yet have dreamt of, for the Art is great, but the human mind presses on untiringly.

In the patient let me ever see only the man. Thou, All- Bountiful One, hast chosen me to watch over the life and death of Thy creatures. I prepare myself now for my calling. Stand Thou by me in this great task, so that it may prosper. For without Thine aid man prospers not even in the smallest things.

-Maimonides, from Morning Prayer of the Physician

Mom, Dad, Brian, and Benjy, Mom-Mom and Grandma - Thank you for all the love and support, far beyond the amount I could have envisioned.

It all counts, every day, every year, every relationship. If you're wasting it, or unhappy where you are, only you have the power to change it.

To my family: Everything I have accomplished, I owe to you for your unconditional love and guidance.

Paige: You are the sunshine on a rainy day. It is such a pleasure to watch you grow - always reach for the stars.

To my Friends: We started this journey four years ago as strangers and now we end it as friends. Even though our paths will lead us in different directions, you will always be in my heart. Remember, we made it this far not by ourselves but with the love and support from each other and our families.

Mom and Dad - This page is dedicated to the both of you, for without your constant love, support and encouragement throughout the years, this dream would not have been possible. You have been behind me since day one, and have proven to be an endless source of inspiration and a wealth of sound advice. I thank you both from the bottom of my heart.
Steve - The best brother a guy could have! Thank's for all the laughter, good times, and always being available to play some tennis!
Grandmom - You're truly one of a kind!! I am eternally grateful to you for providing me with a great place to stay throughout medical school. Your cakes and cookies are the best! Grazie Nonna ti voglio tanto bene.
Nonni - Grazie per i preziosi consigli. Ne faro ampio tesoro.
Marylou - My best friend and soon to be my beautiful wife. You have enriched my life beyond belief, and I thank you for your undying love and support over the past two years. I look forward to our lives together, filled with love, friendship and happiness...forever. Ti amo per sempre amore mio.

I can't believe that this day is finally here! Thanks to all of my friends and family for the love and support you have given me these last years. Gina, without you, this dream would never have become a reality. You carried me through the tough times, and shared the good times with me...Thanks for giving your love and support, without doubting me, but most of all, you have given me the most precious gift of all - our daughter Mia - I TRULY AM THE LUCKIEST MAN ON EARTH. Dad, it hasn't always been easy for us, but thanks for believing in me and pushing me to be the best at whatever I did. Mom, you were both mother and friend. I can never thank you enough for the help you've given me. Kathy, thanks for treating me as a son and nothing less. Nonni and Nonno, words can never express what you mean to me. Thanks for being there when I needed your help. Grandma Betty, you mean so much to me and have helped me through some tough spots. April, Amber, Katie and Megan, you are the best sisters anyone can have. Mom and Dad Semenza, thanks for all the help you have given to Gina and me. You were there when we needed you, and never questioned why. Kevin, Mike, Jimmy, Art, Dan and Uncle Bud, thanks for all the good times we've shared and never letting me forget where I came from and where I belong. Everyone in Old Forge, thanks for always making me feel special and supporting me. It's so hard to find all the right words to say - but one thing I know for sure is that I love all of you very much and can't say thank you enough.

"When I was a child, I spoke and thought and reasoned as a child does. But when I became a man, my thoughts grew far beyond those of my childhood, and now I have put away childish things. In the same way, we can see and understand only a little about God now, as if we were peering at His reflection in a poor mirror; but someday we are going to see Him in His completeness, face to face. Now all that I know is hazy and blurred, but then I will see everything clearly, just as clearly as God sees into my heart right now.

There are three things that remain - faith, hope and love - and the greatest of these is Love."

To my Mom and Dad: "Thank you" does not seem enough after everything you both have done for me. You have made so many sacrifices to enable me to work toward this degree. You have supported me, loved me and encouraged me throughout my entire life. I would have never reached this point if it weren't for the both of you. For this, I'm forever indebted and eternally grateful. I love you both more than you'll ever know.

To Ann and Kevin, my loving sister and brother-in-law: Thanks for all of your support and understanding during this adventure in my life. Can you believe I'm finally done? I love you guys!

To Kayla, my beautiful little girl: You have been my inspiration and the light of my life since the day you were born. I thank you for your unconditional love and for showing me all the things that are truly important in life. I love you always!

To John, my fiancee and best friend: You have been my biggest fan throughout all of my years at PCOM. When I doubted myself, you were always there to renew my confidence. Mom and Dad: Finally, at the completion of my goal and I have both of you to thank and share with. Dad, thank you for the encouraging words and pep talks which gave me the strength to go on and endure the repetitive obstacles in my life. Mom, for your TLC, your home cooked meals, and for just being there to listen and hold; I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart. I love you, Mom and Dad, you're the best!

Ricky and Steve: To my brothers who have now grown up into two fine grown men. Thanks for the advice on different styles, the latest music and fads. This diploma goes out to you both for your understanding and faith in me. Remember guys, your big brother loves you and will always be there for you.

To Mark: My Rock. What could I say to the best friend a guy could ever hope for. We've been through it all, my friend, thick and thin, just like we said we would. Though we may part as roommates, I know we'll be there to the end, together...forever. May love and happiness follow you wherever you may go.

I thank God for giving me a loving family, faith, and perseverance which have enabled me to attain my goal as a physician.
Mom and Dad: You have taught me the values of hard work, determination and compassion. This degree belongs as much to you as it does to myself for it would not have been possible without the love and support the two of you have given to me. I hope I can continue to make you proud. I love you both very much.
To my Family and Friends: Your support has helped me through many hard times. I thank you all for being there for me. Each of you, in your own way, has shaped the person I am and the Physician I hope to become.
To my wife Kristen: We did it honey! You have been there to encourage me in the bad times and rejoice with me in the good times. I would not have made it through these four years without your patience and support. Through all of this, you have taught me how to enjoy life, motivated me to do my very best, and to laugh. "Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Through him we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in our hope of sharing the glory of God. More than that, we rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit which has been given to us." If I Had My Life to Live Over I'd dare to make more mistakes next time. I'd relax, I would limber up. I would be sillier than I have been this trip. I would eat more ice cream and less beans. I would perhaps have more actual troubles, but I'd have fewer imaginary ones.

...Oh, I've had my moments, and if I had it to do over again, I'd have more of them. In fact, I'd try to have nothing else. Just moments, one after another, instead of living so many years ahead of each day.

...If I had my life to live over, I would start barefoot earlier in the spring and stay that way later in the fall. ...I would ride more merry-go-rounds. I would pick more daisies.

To laugh often and much; to win the respect of intelligent people and the affection of children;
To earn the appreciation of honest critics and endure the betrayal of false friends;
To appreciate beauty, to find the best in others; to leave the world a bit better whether by a healthy child, a garden patch or a redeemed social condition;

I would like to thank my parents for the guidance they have given me throughout my college and medical career. My relatives have also been very important to me because of their loving support.
The person that I would like to thank the most is Elizabeth. She has always been there for me through thick and thin. She is my confidante and best friend. I will always be indebted to her.

Osteopathy is a science. Its use is in the healing of the afflicted. It is a philosophy which embraces surgery, obstetrics and general practice. An osteopath must be a man of reason and prove his talk by his work. He has no use for theories unless they are demonstrated. Osteopathy is to me a very sacred science. It is sacred because it is a healing power through all Nature.
- A.T. Still, Research and Practice

To my Family: I thank you all for the love, support, advice and encouragement you have given to me over the years. There is not enough space to begin to tell you how much I appreciate what you have done for me. I only wish that MaMa, Grandaddy, and Grandmother C could all be here to see me obtain my dream of becoming a physician. I love you all and cannot wait to come home.

To My Friends and Extended Family: Aunt Nell, the McClintocks, Anita, Gerry, Valorie, the Vaughans, the Ruths, Richard, and Kelley, thank you all for extending your homes, hearts and ears to me over the years.

To My Friends and Classmates from PCOM: I am especially grateful for the support I have received from all of you. I know I would not be here today were it not for the way we all came together and worked for a common goal. Thanks to the many of you who have helped, encouraged, tutored, counseled, and supported me. I wish you all much happiness and success.

It is a privilege to finally reach this goal. The past few years have been a time to learn, to grow, and to understand more about the magnificence of God's most wonderful creation. The journey is just beginning and I welcome the challenges and opportunities that this "calling" will bring.

I cannot express enough my thanks and gratitude to family and friends who have walked with me during this chapter of life. Mom and Dad, thanks for your constant love and support shown in so many ways. You have helped make this achievement possible. I am blessed to have you as parents. To the Clemens family, thanks for making the first year more bearable. Your support and encouragement have always been a source of strength. To Eldon, thanks for always being there and believing in me. A special thanks to my friends from Ambler whom I've journeyed with for the last four years. And thanks to many other dear friends who have shared this experience with me.

Thank you God, for Your steadfast love and for being my guiding light. I thank You for the privilege of this achievement, and I look to You in all things.

I would first like to thank God Almighty for giving me the strength and wisdom to make this day a reality.
MOM: Through the good times and bad, you were always there for me. It was your faith, love and encouragement that made this day happen. This is your day as well as mine. Thank you for believing in me. I love you.
DAD: Although things have not always been great between us, the love and support you gave meant a lot.
MY FAMILY: I would like to let each and everyone of you know just how much I appreciate the encouraging words and prayers.
KARYN AND YVETTE: During the past four years, we've become very good friends, or shall I say sisters. We've had our share of laughter and tears. The two of you helped me through some hard times (passing Histo and Biochem). Thank you for lending an ear and a shoulder. I'm letting you know now, not three months later, that I sincerely appreciate your friendship.

I DID IT! OR SHOULD I SAY, WE DID IT!

I would like to dedicate this page to those who made a difference in my life over the last four years:

MY FAMILY: Wally, Hal, Debbie, Dien, Ung, and Courtney. Thank you for your constant support.

BOB: A great roommate and friend and a fantastic camping partner.

KARA: My second roommate whom I can always talk to.

MY FUTURE PARENTS-IN-LAW: Art & Sandy - Thanks for introducing me to NASCAR and for having a wonderful, beautiful and very stubborn daughter.

POPPA WALLY: Your unconditional love and support has made medical school much easier to swallow. You have always been there to listen during good times and bad times. THANK YOU!

LASTLY, TO MY BEST FRIEND DEBBIE: You already know how I feel. Also, you asked me not to write anything mushy. I am just looking forward to our life together. I LOVE YOU!

First and foremost, I thank my GOD who has sustained me and blessed me every step of the way. I thank my parents, who always encouraged me and believed in me. I thank my family, including my wonderful in-laws, and friends who lovingly cared for my little girl so that I could get this far. I thank my husband, Norman, and my daughter, Veronica, for helping me keep my perspective and for all your hugs and kisses. You make life worthwhile.

Mom and Dad: Without you, my life would not have been possible. Thank you for everything and for just being my parents. You are the BEST and I love you very much!
Lori: My friend, my wife. Thanks for being there when I was miserable and for being there when I wasn't. You are the best thing to happen in my life. I pray that we will always be together and our love for each other will grow every day.
All of my family and friends -- Grandma, Bob and Roberta, and all of the people in my life too numerous to mention. A VERY SPECIAL THANK YOU!
Lord: Thank You for everything You have given me. Thank You for giving me the opportunity to become a physician and for everyone that has been a part of my life. I ask You to help me become the best possible physician that I can become.

Mom and Dad: Thanks for your constant love and support. Always being on the sidelines rooting for me. Thanks especially for instilling in me the work ethic that has enabled me to fufill my dream. I hope to be as good a role model to my children as you were to me. I love you both!
Brohams - Mike, Brian, Jer, Doug and Greg: Thanks for all the laughs and male bonding days. I know there's many more to come! I love you all.
To the rest of my family and friends, especially those I met in med school: Thanks for being there and making this experience more bearable.
Finally to Cindy - My wife, my life: I've said it before and I'll say it again - I could not have done this without you. I love you not only for what you are but for what I am when I am with you! You are my best friend and I love you the most!

Graduation, it's finally here! Boy, am I going to miss financial aid, short lab coats, having my work co-signed, and being broke. C'est la vie! Four whole years have passed and it doesn't seem like yesterday. In these four years, I have really matured. I went from being an immature and stupid first year, to a little less immature and not so stupid fourth year, finally to an almost mature graduate who is ready to embark on a career of lifelong learning and maturing in medicine.

Mom and Dad, your son is a doctor. I couldn't ever thank you enough for all you've done for me to get me to this point. I'd like you to know that this degree is half yours and half mine. I may have put in work and effort but you both put in time through all of your love and prayers. Your love and prayers combined have helped me to succeed and have always been a part of every success I've ever had. Mom and Dad, join me as I pray that God will help me to become the best physician that I am capable of becoming. Amen.

Gretchen: You are always there for me. No one could ask for a more caring sister. Thank you for your constant encouragement. I love you very much.
My family: Thank you for your support, your belief in me and for being part of that special bond of family.
My friends: You have each contributed to my life in special ways. Thank you for understanding my pressures, making me laugh and always being there. My Classmates, especially Rob, Stacey, Jay, and Rob: I'm glad we shared these four years. I couldn't have done it without you.
Kirk: You have stood by me through years of ups and downs. Your belief in me, your patience, and your support have made all this possible. I look forward to our life together. I love you.

We're Opening New Doors For You.

Opportunity is knocking at Metro Health Center. Metro has the unique distinction of offering personalized one-to-one healthcare with a 150-bed, state of-the-art facility, right in the heart of Erie, Pennsylvania.

Imagine living in a community where you can leave downtown at 5 p.m. and be sitting on your sailboat in 10 minutes. The fall foliage is beautiful and the challenging winter skiing is minutes away.

Equally attractive is the cost of living. Erie boasts a low cost of living where you can afford to put down your roots and grow.

We invite you to visit us and talk to our Residents, Interns, Clinical Clerks and other healthcare employees to further explore the many amenities of Metro Health Center and the Erie community.

Among the programs offered at Metro Health Center:

- Residencies - general practice (6 positions) and otorhinolaryngology.
- Internships - 8 funded positions in a progressive teaching program with a competitive benefit package.
- Clinical Clerkships in surgery, family practice, internal medicine, OB-Gyn, radiology, ER, and the major subspecialties.

Together, we can make a world of difference.

Botsford, known nationally as a leading teaching hospital, offers extensive continuing education programs in a wide range of specialties and sub-specialties. Our affiliation with Michigan State University College of Osteopathic Medicine allows our physicians additional access to the latest research in diagnostic and therapeutic technology.

While we continue in our commitment to progress by expanding our facilities and training our staff in the most current techniques and procedures, we recognize that health care is not limited to technology.

Our most fundamental activity is the provision of personal, compassionate care that considers the entire person.

At Botsford, we believe that making a difference in the world starts in our community.

BEST WISHES & GOOD LUCK TO THE CLASS OF 1995

THANKS TO ALL THE PCOM DOCTORS & TEACHERS

FRIENDS OF THE CLASS OF 1995

Congratulations Dr. Kevin, we are so proud of your accomplishments. Go Navy!

Chris Evans - Pick up your socks & wear clean underwear without holes ... just in case ... Love Mother

To All My Classmates - I am honored by your vote of confidence in awarding me the CIBA-GEIGY Award. Thank you very much. Kathy Note Service of 1995 is defunct - We ran out of cartoons!!!

Frank - Without all of your back-up tapes we would have been up the proverbial creek. Thank you. Kathy Suanne - Thank you for always being there.

Jill B. - You'll make a fine Doctor!

To those MBA Guys! I will miss you dearly! I couldn't have done it without you! What a collaboration of race, religion, backgrounds, and political incorrectness!
Love you, Cecelia

With Fond Memories

Daniel L. Wisely, D.O., F.A.C.O.S.

On February 27, 1995, the PCOM community lost one of its most esteemed colleagues, teachers, and friends - Daniel Wisely, D.O.

It was in the simple, down-home approach to life he developed as a boy, the "good ol' boy southern philosophy," as he calls it, where he learned how to listen and how to treat people with compassion. It wouldn't be until he trained at Kirksville College of Osteopathic Medicine that he would learn what he considers the third trait of a successful osteopathic physician - touch.

He joined the staff of PCOM in August 1983 as professor and chairman of the department of surgery. His commitment and dedication to PCOM quickly multiplied as did his popularity among students and fellow physicians. His teaching skills, matched only by his efforts as dean, were recognized by students and administration alike.

In addition to his achievements at PCOM, Dr. Wisely served in numerous osteopathic organizations. He was a diplomate of the American Osteopathic Board of Surgery and fellow and former president of the American College of Osteopathic Surgeons.

The Class of 1995 pledges to uphold Dean Wisely's dedication to osteopathic medicine.

Thank You Thank You Thank You

The Class of 1995 for your support & understanding.
